

THE GENERAL MEDICAL COUNCIL CERTIFICATION FEES REGULATIONS 2011

The General Medical Council, in exercise of their powers under Sections 34B(2) and 34O of the Medical Act 1983 hereby make the following Regulations –

Citation and commencement

1. These regulations may be cited as the General Medical Council Certification Fees Regulations 2011 and shall come into force on 15 December 2011.

Interpretation

2. In these regulations, unless the context otherwise requires:-

“the Act” means the Medical Act 1983;

“CCT” means a certificate of completion of training awarded under section 34L;

“certificate of acquired rights” means a certificate issued in accordance with section 34G(2) of the Act;

“GP register” means the General Practitioner Register kept in accordance with section 34C of the Act;

“oral appeal” means an appeal considered at a hearing held in accordance with the General Medical Council (Registration Appeals Panels Procedure) Rules 2010;

“the Specialist Register” means the register kept in accordance with section 34D of the Act; and “written appeal” means an appeal considered on the papers at a meeting held in the absence of the parties.

Fees to be charged by the Council

3. Subject to regulation 4 below, the Council shall charge the fees specified in column (3) of the table in Schedule 1, in respect of each function identified in the corresponding entry in column (2) of the table.

Discounts and split fees

- 4.

- (1) Where a person:

(a) requests a written statement of eligibility in accordance with regulation 7 of the General Medical Council (Applications for General Practice and Specialist Registration) Regulations 2010; and

(b) submits, in support of their request, evidence in the form prescribed by the Council which demonstrates that they have completed a training programme approved by the Council, the fee set out in row (3) of the table in Schedule 1 shall be paid in two parts, £390 on making the request and £1110 on determination, save that where the Council is able to issue a written statement of eligibility on the basis of the prescribed form of evidence alone, it shall waive the second part of the fee.

(2) Where an applicant has made an unsuccessful application for a CCT or certificate of acquired rights, or request for a written statement of eligibility, and makes a further application or request on new evidence within three years from the date of the prior determination, then the fee shall be:

(a) £220 for the further application for a CCT;

(b) £140 for the further application for a certificate of acquired rights; and

(c) £645 for the further request for a written statement of eligibility.

Revocation

5.

(1) The General Medical Council Certification Fees Regulations 2010 are hereby revoked.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in these regulations any fees due to the Council under or by virtue of the regulations that have been revoked shall remain due to the Council as though they were payable under these regulations.

Given under the official seal of the General Medical Council this day of 14 December 2011.
