From 01 Aug 2025 to 01 Aug 2026

'Dr Sachdeva In or around February 2023 you created a false letter addressed to the Royal College of Ophthalmologists ('RCOphth'), confirming your qualification and suitability to sit a Fellowship examination, in the name of Professor A. You submitted the letter to the RCOphth without the prior consent or agreement of Professor A. Further to this, you knowingly maintained, to Professor A, that the letter submitted was only a 'draft' or 'template' despite knowing that you had uploaded it as a final version. Your conduct was dishonest. This conduct does not meet the standards required of a doctor. It risks bringing the profession into disrepute and it must not be repeated. The required standards are set out in paragraphs 65, 68 and 71 of Good medical practice (2013): '65 You must make sure that your conduct justifies your patients' trust in you and the public's trust in the profession. 68 You must be honest and trustworthy in all your communication with patients and colleagues. This means you must make clear the limits of your knowledge and make reasonable checks to make sure any information you give is accurate. 71 You must be honest and trustworthy when writing reports, and when completing or signing forms, reports and other documents. You must make sure that any documents you write or sign are not false or misleading. a You must take reasonable steps to check the information is correct. b You must not deliberately leave out relevant information.' Whilst this misconduct in itself is not so serious as to require any restriction on your registration, it is necessary in response to issue this formal warning. This Warning will be published on the List of Registered Medical Practitioners (LRMP) in line with our publication and disclosure policy, which can be found at www.gmc-uk.org/disclosurepolicy'
